

Marion Tree Board Seasonal Art Contest Frequently Asked Questions

Who can enter?

The Tree Board's Adult Art Contest is open to any adult ages 18 and up. The Tree Board's Student Art Contest is open to all students ages 4 and up in public and private schools in McDowell County.

What can be entered?

We want to see your love of trees expressed through art, so all forms of art can be entered in this contest. Whether you want to write a poem or short story about trees, take photographs of budding dogwoods or sculpt a vase or piece of jewelry featuring trees, we welcome all types of art.

When are entries due?

Digital photos of entries are due between now and Monday, Feb. 1, 2020. After February 1, entries can be submitted in person at Marion City Hall, located at 194 N. Main Street in Marion.

When will winners be announced?

Winners will be announced during the Tree Board's Art Reception at MACA in mid-February. All entering artists will receive an invitation to this event.

What will winners receive?

Winners of the adult contest will receive a Tree Board branded, yeti-style tumbler and t-shirt. They'll also be recognized in The McDowell News and on social media for their win.

Winners of the student contest will receive an assortment of fabulous, age-appropriate prizes.
